REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Response to Arguments

Appellant's arguments filed in the Appeal Brief dated 21 September 2006 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of the claims has been withdrawn and thus prosecution on the case has been reopened.

Information Disclosure Statement

It is noted that FR 1,077,898 and EP 0150666A foreign documents listed on the IDS filed 16 February 2005 that were not previously considered have been considered by the Examiner.

Claims 1-15 and 16-27 allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the art of record does not fairly disclose or suggest a medical vacuum aspiration device comprising a valve comprising: a removable fluid conduit, a valve housing that removably holds at least a portion of the fluid conduit; a hinge about which the first housing pivots relative to the second housing portion; and an actuator for controlling a suction path suitable for separating after use and facilitating easier sterilization.

The following is the closest art not previously cited:

Boudreault et al. (US 5,186,714) discloses surgical instrument 1 with removable and interchangeable suction and irrigation cartridge 20 (column 6, lines 56-59) for easy sterilization (column 8, lines 1-3); holder/valve housing 10 made of two symmetrical plastic parts that are detachably connected either by a screw or by snapping/releasable connector means (column 4, lines 55-64, figure 1); actuator/push buttons 29, 30 that stop the suction or irrigation (column 5, lines 8-13, column 6, lines 51-53). Boudreault does not disclose or fairly suggest a hinge in which the housing portions pivot since the housing portions since they clamp on directly to suction cartridge 20 and cannot pivot since they maintain a stationary configuration (figure 1).

Devlin et al. (US 5,300,043) discloses aspiration catheter system 1 with valve assembly 3 having upper and lower/first and second housing portions 30, 31 encasing the valve assembly (column 3, lines 8-49) and actuator 60 (column 3, line 65-column 4, line 3, figures 1-2) but no removable housing portions with a pivoting hinge.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
